CF83 DEFIBRILLATOR UPDATE

The Clerk updated Members on progress and confirmed that she had spoken to the British Heart Foundation regarding funding and they will consider the Council's application in April

CF84 JUNIOR PLAY AREA – MIDDLETONS ROAD

The Clerk reported that the application or funding from the Big Lottery Fund had been unsuccessful. Enquiries were made of Section 106 monies and Huntingdonshire District Council (HDC) advised that this could only be used for open space areas rather than play areas. Members were asked to consider whether to proceed to use the £10,000.00 earmarked in the reserves for 2016/2017 for play equipment or amend the scheme by Action Play and Leisure, by removing the swings which would reduce the overall cost by approximately £2000.00

Councillor R Butcher proposed that Members to proceed with and approve the funding from the earmarked reserves. This was seconded by Councillor J Lusted RESOLVED

CF85 S106 MONIES

HDC have advised on changes for the use of Section 106 monies for open spaces. If it is not used then it will be lost. The Clerk reported on improvements that are required at Green Lane and requested members consider this area for monies

Councillor J Lusted proposed that Members proceed with and approve $106 monies be used for Green Lane. This was seconded by Councillor R Butcher RESOLVED
